

Sr. Project Manager: K-12 and/or Higher Education

POSTED: July 1, 2021

AVRP Studios is seeking a Sr. Project Manager experienced with K-12 and/or Higher Education projects.

Duties and Responsibilities: Development and management of project fees and schedules; lead technical development of the project; translate design concepts into construction documents; coordinate in-house and consultant work effort; prepare code reviews; process permits with public agencies and assist with construction administration. Must interact well with team members, clients and consultants.

Skills and Requirements:

- Minimum of 15 years of experience including K-12 and/or Higher Education projects including new construction (Type II and V) and complex whole-site modernization
- Knowledge of building codes and experience with agency processing including DSA
- California Architectural License and LEED AP preferred
- Design Sensitivity
- Experience in the management of projects designed or documented using BIM
- Excellent communication and collaboration skills
- Ability to lead others

Compensation – based on experience.

About AVRP Studios

AVRP Studios strives to find and develop an original idea that drives the creative process for each project. Principals Douglas H. Austin, FAIA; and Christopher T. Veum, Associate AIA and Randy Robbins, AIA represent award-winning portfolios that have inspired developers and civic leaders to think beyond traditional boundaries to infuse each project with experiential community connections. Celebrating 45 years of creativity and accomplishment in 2021, the firm and its principals have earned nearly 150 design awards. For more information, visit www.avrpstudios.com.