

Randy Robbins, AIA, LEED AP

Principal, AVRP Skyport

Randy Robbins, AIA, LEED AP, has over 40 years of experience in master planning, architecture, and interior design. Leading AVRP Skyport's Campus and Community studio, Robbins has worked with a wide array of clients including municipalities, school districts, non-profit organizations, and private developers. Higher education experience includes projects at UCSD, San Diego State University, and Riverside Community College. K-12 work includes work for San Diego Unified School District at Hoover High School, Point Loma High School, and Correia Middle School. His community portfolio includes the award-winning Congregation Beth Israel campus, Ray & Joan Kroc Salvation Army Community Center and the Battle of the Midway Experience Theater located on the USS Midway Museum.

With a keen eye for art and aesthetics, Robbins has served as an appointed member of the City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture, and as a Director of the San Diego Architectural Foundation. Currently, he serves as a Director of ACE mentoring and as the Treasurer and Past President of Installation Gallery, the sponsor of inSITE, a binational arts program. He received his Bachelor of Architecture degree from Cal Poly State University, San Luis Obispo.